My sister Anne-Marie Di Benedetto will marry Anthony Fedele on October 16. Please keep them in your prayers! As a result I will make my annual family visit to New Jersey from October 14-22. I will also use this opportunity to visit a priest friend in Maine. Father Dave Ruppert from St. Mary's in Decatur has graciously agreed to cover all 3 of our weekend Masses on Oct. 17 and 18. However, he is not available for Saturday afternoon Confessions so those will be cancelled along with daily Mass and the Wednesday Confessions and Adoration. I appreciate everyone bearing this inconvenience as I travel to maintain relationships on the East Coast.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Next weekend, in union with the whole Church, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. This observance was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1926 to remind Catholics about their commitment to support the missionary work of the Church through prayer and sacrifice. This call has intensified this year due to the serious difficulties which so many people are experiencing due to the pandemic. Pope Francis reflected on this during his message for World Mission Sunday earlier this year:

“In this year marked by the suffering and challenges created by the Covid-19 pandemic, the missionary journey of the whole Church continues in light of the words found in the account of the calling of the prophet Isaiah: ‘Here am I, send me’ (6:8). This is the ever new response to the Lord’s question: ‘Whom shall I send?’ (ibid.). This invitation from God’s merciful heart challenges both the Church and humanity as a whole in the current world crisis.... In this context, the call to mission, the invitation to step out of ourselves for love of God and neighbour, presents itself as an opportunity for sharing, service and intercessory prayer. The mission that God entrusts to each one of us leads us from fear and introspection to a renewed realization that we find ourselves precisely when we give ourselves to others.”

Next weekend, October 17 and 18, we will have a concrete opportunity to support the missionary work of the Church throughout the world through the annual collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. This collection supports mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world’s most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope’s missionary efforts in your prayers and give generously to next week’s collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Kevin C. Rhoades
